II Discuss the following (50%):

a)

A little black thing among the snow,

Crying "weep! weep!" in notes of woe!

'Where are thy father and mother, say?'

'They are both gone up to the Church to pray

'Because I was happy upon the heath,

And smil'd among the winter's snow,

They clothed me in the clothes of death,

And taught me to sing the notes of woe.

'And because I am happy and dance and sing,

They think they have done me no injury,

And are gone to praise God and His Priest and King,

Who make up Heaven of our misery.'

b)

To him whose elastic vigorous thought keeps pace with the sun, the day is a perpetual morning. It matters not what the clocks say or the attitudes and labors of men. Morning is when I am awake and there is a dawn in me. Moral reform is the effort to throw off sleep.....The millions are awake enough for physical labor: but only one in a million is awake enough for effective intellectual exertion, only one in a hundred millions to a poetic or divine life. To be awake is to be alive.
